EDUCATION PATHWAY BENEFITS

In the last semester of the program, students will work at a Jefferson County Public Schools (JCPS) school as an Instructional Assistant (Option 9) and earn 12 hours of student teaching credit. Students will also complete 1-credit hour on-line Capstone Course. Must meet employment eligibility criteria

- Instructional Assistant starting pay is $19.01-$22.01/per hour
- Positions are 187 days and subject to escrow
- Employees under Option 9, once they are hired, do not receive benefits until the second month after full employment.
- To obtain healthcare insurance during the interim period, students can:
 - Can apply for the UofL Primary Care Health Fee (<https://louisville.edu/campushealth/information/fees/primary-car-health-fee>) while not enrolled in medical insurance policy. Students enrolled in 12 credit hours can pay $150 during the last Spring semester which provides primary services at the Cardinal Station of Health Science Center offices of the Campus Health Services

-If eligible, apply through your parent/guardian insurance plan

FUTURE HIRING

- When students successfully graduate, they will be in high priority hiring status as new hire
- All Jefferson County Teachers Association (JCTA) transfer rules will be followed meaning sitting teachers wanting to transfer will get first rights to openings per the Collective Bargaining Agreement (CBA)

12 CREDITS OF UOFL TUITION PAID BY:

- A 25% grant-based tuition reduction for the last semester of undergraduate tuition at UofL
- Apply for JCPS tuition assistance. It is not guaranteed, and a distribution of funds depends on the number of eligible employees requesting benefit
- Opt into the Commonwealth Credit Union (CCU) Savings Plan. The CCU savings plan option will require students in the program to make a $5-$30 a week direct deposit starting at the beginning of the program. Students will also save their MC semester bonuses and MC fee payments. This savings will help cover tuition, living and healthcare expenses in the final semester of your program.
- CCU Scholarship. Those receiving the award will receive up to $2,000 in the final semester of the program if program requirements are fulfilled.
