Before We Get Started

MC @ UofL: Admission Requirement

To participate in MC at UofL, you must have a:

- 3.0 cumulative high school GPA AND
- 21 ACT/1060 SAT composite score

Beginning fall 2020, MC will consider a first-time MC student's ACT/SAT Superscore of 21/1060 or higher if the minimum ACT/SAT composite score is not met.

Any MC UofL student who does not meet this requirement is encouraged to speak with a Student Development Counselor for further information.

Don't Meet the Eligibility Requirement for MC @ UofL?

Option 1

Attend JCTC and transfer to UofL after you reach the 60 transferable hours or obtain an Associate degree. You can also take advantage of ULtra (JCTC to UofL Transfer Program).

Option 2

UNIVERSITY OF LOUISVILLE

Earn
and Learn

Attend UofL and take advantage of the UPS Earn and Learn program until you reach 60 hours and then contact a Student Development Counselor about joining the MC program.

Option 3

Petition for an exception to the MC/UofL Admission requirement.

Submitting a petition does not guarantee approval.

We know that students who work third shift and who maintain a high GPA have several factors in common. Review the following tips for Metropolitan College to learn how you can ensure your success in the MC program. Feel free to contact a MC Student Development Counselor if you have any questions or need additional guidance in planning.

Limit First Semester Enrollment

- UofL students should register for 9 credit hours or less and the 1 credit hour orientation course. JCTC students should register for no more than 3 classes: FYE105 and 2 proficiency areas (i.e. math and English). Both UofL and JCTC offer Metropolitan College cohort orientation courses taught by MC staff to provide additional support and guidance for the first term.
- Beginning in the fall 2019 semester students who sign their first MC agreement and adhere to part-time enrollment recommendations of enrolling in 10 credit hours or less, will be eligible for payment for courses completed with a D grade during the first agreement
