Select your academic path at UofL

You can return to the same major or — if your interests have changed — choose to explore a new program and career path.

Planning to keep your major?

You're all set! Check this box and proceed to the next step to get started on your application to return to UofL.

Exploring online programs?

Fully online programs at UofL give you the flexibility you need to balance work and life with earning a degree.

Check out our online program finder to learn more.

Weighing your options?

Contact and work with an exploratory advisor if you are not sure what major to pursue, or to see how past credits will transfer to a new degree path.

Apply to return to UofL

Have you...

Taken classes in your major (online or face-to-face) within the past two years, and are returning to the same program?

Great! Simply request to re-enroll.

Been away from the program for two or more years? OR Previously enrolled at UofL as a visitor? Were academically suspended? Attended another university or college since leaving UofL?

No problem! Reapply through the UofL Take Flight Application.

DID YOU KNOW? UofL's Take Flight application fee is waived for MC returners!

Prepare for your first semester back

- 1 Meet with an academic advisor to plan your degree and select your courses
- 2 Submit your FAFSA at fafsa.ed.gov with UofL's School Code: 001999

WE'RE HERE TO HELP

Your journey is unique—and we understand. This guide is a quick reference for returning to UofL as a Metro College student, but it may not fully address your circumstance. If you have questions please reach out to speak directly to your MC counselor who can assist you.
